

A recipe for:

From the Kitchen of: Sharon Palmer (11)

Oakhill Potatoes - a very popular dish made in New Zealand.
C, R + H gobble it up!
(Serves - 4-6)

50 grms butter (2oz)

1/4 C flour

salt + fresh ground pepper

600 mls milk (2 1/2 cups) or (1 pint)

2 C grated cheese (sharp)

8 medium sized potatoes, peeled, cooked
+ sliced.

4 hard boiled eggs, sliced

4-6 rashers of ^(slices)bacon, ^{cooked,} crumbled or chopped

4 slices white bread, crusts removed.

2 T parsley, chopped.

Preheat oven to 200°C. (400°F)

Spray a medium sized lasagne dish with non-stick spray or use butter wrapper.

In a saucepan, melt the butter + stir in the flour using a wire whisk. Cook for 1 minute, then season with salt + pepper.

While whisking, slowly add the milk. Stir until smooth + thick (Basic white sauce)

Add cheese + stir till melted. Do not boil after the cheese has been added. Remove from heat.

Layer the sliced potato, egg + cooked crumbled bacon in the dish + pour over cheese sauce. Place the bread slices + remaining $\frac{1}{4}$ c cheese in a processor + whiz in to crumbs. Sprinkle over dish + bake for 25-30 minutes. Sprinkle with parsley. Great with a green salad + fresh, crunchy bread.